WAR SERVICE ROLL

The following list of Aggie men in service has been prepared from the most authentic information which has been placed at our disposal. Without question, there are omissions from and errors in this list. In order to make it complete and accurate we must rely upon the co-operation and assistance of the men in the service and members of their families.

This list covers inductions of which we have record up to September 1, 1918. Many more names will be added to this list as a result of the new draft regulations, and we are anxious to have these reported as soon as possible.

We wish to make the following specific requests :

1. That men in service notify us promptly of any change in address or rank, or that they arrange with members of their families to so inform us.
2. That men who may enter the service during the next few months may so inform us.
3. That we be informed of any omission or error that may be noted in this list.

Cards convenient for reporting information will be found next to the cover of this booklet.

A copy of this list is being sent to all men known to be in the service, to members of their families and to all other graduates.

In common with nearly all other American colleges, this institution will now become a military training center, giving preliminary training to officers.

RALPH J. WATTS, Secretary.

INTRODUCTORY

We saw not clearly nor understood,
But, yielding ourselves to the master hand,
Each in his part as best he could,
We played it through as the author planned.

—Alan Seeger.

Over 700 men in the service of the country! Our hearts burn within us with joy and pride as we repeat the handsome figure, and we can not help whispering to ourselves again and again—"700 Aggie boys in the Service."

We know that this splendid number will be excelled by none in the quality of service rendered, and we are confident, beyond question, that it will write a record as fine and big as anything to be found upon the fair pages of American college history—and the wonderful page of it that is today in the making.

You men are enlisted in the greatest cause that has engaged the energies of men at any time in the history of the race. From the beginning of time, the whole urge of this old world of ours has been from darkness to light, from tyranny to liberty, from autocracy to democracy, from barbarism and cruelty to kindness and brotherhood. This grand sweep toward the better day, for which men have always yearned and hoped, our enemy would not only block but reverse. The Hun aims—blindly, perhaps, but surely and inevitably—to re-establish some of the old world's outworn and impossible arrangements and institutions—old things and evils which through long suffering and a bitter agony of spirit it has long since and forever shuffled off. For the light as we see it, he is bound to substitute his light; the old tyranny for our new liberty; cruelty and frightfulness (Schrecklichkeit) for the strong Christian virtues and graces. But America will not have it so; our allies will not have it so; you will not have it so; and the Power that makes for righteousness, the Infinite Power that holds the destinies of mankind in His hand, will not have it so. And it will not be so, thank God!

You American men and boys in plain khaki, then, are more than soldiers; you are veritably crusaders. You are not only to fight to make the world safe for democracy, but to fight to keep the Beatitudes, the Sermon on the Mount, all that we know by Christian ideas and ideals dominant as well as safe in the world. You men are fighting for His Kingdom and His Righteousness, if men anywhere at any time fought for it. When this terrific struggle is stripped of all its verbiage and confusion, history will not fail to write that it was a struggle of progress against reaction, of Right against Might, of the forces of good against the forces of evil.

Consciously or unconsciously, you are aware of this tremendous fact, everyone of you. Therefore you will "quit you like men and be strong." Therefore you will royally and completely share in the Great Victory. You will bring a new Glory to the fair name of "Old Aggie." It cannot be otherwise. Congratulations to each one of you, and God's blessing be yours always.

EDWARD M. LEWIS, Dean.

That Liberty be not betrayed and sold,
And that her sons prove worthy of the breed ;
That Freedom's flag may shelter as of old,
Nor decorate the shrines of Gold and Greed,
We come; and on our consecrated sword
We ask Thy blessing, Lord.

—Barry.

Life is no life to him that dares not die;
And Death no death to him that dares not live.

—Newbolt.

God rest you, happy gentleman
Who laid your good lives down
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town.

—Letts.

This let us pray for, this implore
That all base dreams thrust out at door.
We may in loftier aims excel
And, like men waking from a spell,
Grow stronger, nobler than before,
When there is peace.

—Dobson.

Oh, it's home again, and home again, America for me !
I want a ship that's westward bound to plough the rolling sea,
To the blessed Land of Room Enough beyond the ocean bare,
Where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.
